

Pet Permit — Terms and Conditions

Last updated: 5 October 2026

1. About these terms

These terms apply whenever you book a service with Pet Permit. Please read them before you book. By confirming a booking, you agree to them.

Pet Permit is run by Dr Swasti Misra, an RCVS-registered veterinary surgeon and APHA-authorised Official Veterinarian ("I", "me").

Contact: swasti@petpermit.co.uk · Tandem House, 29 Track Street, London E17 7FQ

2. Booking and payment

Booking. Your booking is confirmed when I confirm the date and time of your home visit by email and receive your £50 deposit.

Prices. My current prices are listed on the website. The price that applies is the one I confirm when you book.

Service	Price
Animal Health Certificate (AHC)	£200 (repeat customers £185)
Urgent AHC, booked less than 5 days ahead	£250
Each additional pet on the same AHC (up to 5)	£50
Fit-to-fly certificate	£100
Australia: ID checks	£200
Australia: RNATT certification	£100
Australia: Export Health Certificate (EHC)	£250
Amendments to a document	£100 per document
Visit where your pet cannot be certified	£100 (see section 6)

Other documents are priced on request.

Payment. A £50 deposit is due when you book, and comes off your final fee. It is refunded in full if you cancel more than 72 hours before your appointment (see section 3). The rest of the fee is due at the time of your appointment. You can pay by bank transfer or in cash.

3. Cancelling or rearranging

Your legal right to cancel. Because you book with me remotely or at your home, you have the right to cancel within 14 days of booking, without giving a reason. To cancel, email swasti@petpermit.co.uk with your name and booking date.

If you ask me to carry out the visit within those 14 days and then cancel, you pay for any work already done. Once the service has been fully provided at your request, the 14-day right to cancel no longer applies.

Rearranging or cancelling after that. Please give me at least 72 hours' notice if you need to rearrange or cancel your visit.

- More than 72 hours before your appointment: no charge. You can rearrange for free, or cancel and have your deposit refunded in full.
- Less than 72 hours before your appointment, or if nobody is home when I arrive: your deposit is not refunded.

If I need to rearrange. If I'm ill or delayed by something outside my control, I'll contact you as soon as possible to offer a new time. If the new time doesn't work for you, I'll refund anything you've paid for that visit.

4. Home visits

- Who must be there. An adult aged 18 or over must be present for the whole visit.
- Your pet. Please have your pet indoors and safely restrained (on a lead or in a carrier) when I arrive.
- Safety. I may end a visit if I feel it isn't safe to continue, for example if an animal is dangerous or the home environment is unsafe. If that happens, the £100 visit fee in section 6 applies.

5. Your responsibilities

You are responsible for:

- Giving me accurate and complete information, including your pet's microchip number, vaccination records and travel dates
- Having all your pet's original documents ready at the visit
- Telling me straight away if your travel plans change
- Checking the requirements of your airline, ferry or rail operator, which may differ from government rules
- Checking the entry rules of any country you travel through or to, other than those I certify for

If a certificate needs reissuing because information you gave me was wrong or incomplete, the amendment fee applies.

6. Certification

What I can sign. As an Official Veterinarian, I can only sign a certificate when I am satisfied that every legal requirement is met. I cannot sign a certificate that is inaccurate, incomplete or based on information I cannot verify, whatever the circumstances.

If your pet can't be certified on the day. If I can't issue a certificate at the visit, for example because the microchip can't be read, the rabies vaccination isn't valid, or documents are missing:

- You pay a visit fee of £100 instead of the full fee.
- If I come back once the problem is fixed, the full fee for that service applies to the return visit.

No guarantee of entry. A certificate shows your pet met the requirements when I examined them. Border officials, airlines and other carriers make their own decisions, and I can't guarantee your pet will be accepted for travel or entry.

7. Australia exports

Exporting a pet to Australia involves several people and organisations. My part is the services you book with me: ID checks and declarations, RNATT result certification, the Export Health Certificate, and liaising with your transport agent if you ask me to.

The following are not part of my service, and I'm not responsible for them:

- The second identity check by another, independent Official Veterinarian
- The blood draw for the rabies antibody test, and the laboratory testing
- Your Australian import permit
- Quarantine bookings and fees in Australia
- Flights, transport and your transport agent's services

Australia's requirements are strict and time-sensitive. Delays by any of these third parties can affect your timeline.

8. Liability

I will provide my services with reasonable care and skill, as the law requires.

I am not responsible for losses caused by:

- Inaccurate or incomplete information you give me
- Decisions made by border officials, airlines or other carriers
- Delays or errors by third parties, including laboratories, other vets, government agencies and transport agents
- Changes to travel rules made after your certificate is issued
- Events outside my reasonable control

Where I am responsible for a loss, my liability is limited to the fees you paid for the service concerned.

Nothing in these terms limits my liability for death or personal injury caused by my negligence, for fraud, or for anything else the law does not allow me to limit. Nothing in these terms affects your statutory rights.

9. Complaints, privacy and other terms

Complaints. If you're unhappy with my service, please email swasti@petpermit.co.uk and I'll reply within 14 days. If we can't resolve it, you can contact the Veterinary Client Mediation Service or the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons.

Privacy. How I handle your personal information is explained in my privacy policy.

Changes to these terms. I may update these terms from time to time. The version in force when you book is the one that applies to your booking.

Governing law. These terms are governed by the law of England and Wales. You can bring legal proceedings in the courts of England and Wales, or, if you live in Scotland or Northern Ireland, in the courts there.
